

1st Quarter Overview

6th Grade Science

During the first quarter, we begin by defining what “matter” is and its different properties. We went over the states of matter and surface tension. We read about atoms, elements and looked at the periodic table of elements. We performed experiments and watched videos relating to each of these topics. We wrote lab reports on our experiments and learned multiple definitions.